

"I am loving everything Die Twice is serving up", "Everyone has come away [from their performances] having fallen head over heels for these guys" Jess Iszatt, BBC Introducing, Radio 1

"This is Epic" John Kennedy, XFM

"Track of the week worthy ... a special track"
Emily Pilbeam, BBC Introducing Mixtape, Radio 6 Music

"Die Twice ooze class" Clash Magazine

Die Twice are redefining band culture for a new generation disillusioned with the modern landscape of social media soundtracks and lack of shared experiences. Band members Olly Bayton, Billy Twamley, Finn 'Blue' Lloyd and Jake 'Fig' Coles are using their raw and romantic absurdity to lead the charge of a new wave of UK Rock and Roll.

Combining the edge of The Doors and The Clash with the emotional resonance of Erykah Badu and Jeff Buckley, their bold use of genre bending riffs, driving rhythm section and gut wrenchingly honest lyricism begs you to lean in and feel.

Their acerbic wit, cheeky charm and authenticity speak to the core sensibilities of the human experience. From danger and pain to love and identity, Die Twice refuse to conform to expectations as frivolous as genre and social norms. Coupled with their creative integrity and raw talent, Die Twice are an experience: bold, authentic, and unforgettable. In two words? Beautiful Chaos.

FFO: Fontaines DC, Wunderhorse, Blur, The Doors, Nothing But Thieves, Jeff Buckley, and the Pixies.
